

Sweet Talker

Years & Years

You wrote a romance, slow danced
Your way into my hands before I knew
You found my deepest weakness
Couldn't keep a secret that it was you

And I'm trying, trying, trying not to give in
But you always know what to say
Oh why, oh why, oh why, do I listen
To promises you're gonna break?

You're such a sweet talker
You made me believe
Every lie was a beautiful sound
You're such a sweet talker
Man of my dreams
Tell me where are you, where are you now?
Sweet talker

Sweet talker

I wanna chase it, taste it
Nothing can replace this craving I've got
Just another moment, hoping
I could be the only one that you want

And I'm trying, trying, trying not to give in
But you always know what to say
Oh why, oh why, oh why, do I listen
To promises you're gonna break?

You're such a sweet talker
You made me believe
Every lie was a beautiful sound
You're such a sweet talker
Man of my dreams
Tell me where are you, where are you now?
Sweet talker

Sweet talker

Would you lie, would you lie, would you lie, lie to me
Would you lie, would you lie, would you lie, sweet talker
Would you lie, would you lie, would you lie, lie to me
Would you lie, would you lie, would you lie, sweet talker

(Keep talking to me honey)
Would you lie, would you lie, would you lie, lie to me
(Talk to me now)
Would you lie, would you lie, would you lie, sweet talker
(Keep talking to me honey)
Would you lie, would you lie, would you lie, lie to me
(Talk to me now)
Would you lie, would you lie, would you lie, sweet talker

You're such a sweet talker
Man of my dreams
Tell me where are you, where are you now
