

Change It

Yendri

Going back, going forth
Searching east, west, south and north
Climbing up, falling down
Everything on my own

I heard your voice in my dreams
I wake up from my screams
I could see your face at night
It dissapeared in the light

No beginning and no end
Everything lies in my hand
Gotta change it if I can
Gotta change it if I can
