

Falling Down

Yendri

The sound of destruction is coming near Fading illusions
just leaving fear

They're dancing and they're laughing Screaming inside of the ruins

Down, it's going down with me
And nothing can stop it I have no ground under my feet I'll have to face it falling down, falling down

The growing anger
The aggressions
Set me on fire,
letting me burn
But nothing will happen, nothing will happen, because...
