

Already Alright

Yolanda Adams

I want to start things out by giving testimony
Cause one of my friends got ill seriously
Now the doctor told him ain't no way you gone' live
But he prayed his prayer in faith
And a miracle appeared

Its already alright, Its already alright
And all you got to do is Just bow your head down
Just bow and pray And then give it all up
And know everything's gonna be okay
Just throw your hands up
And then wave them left to right
And now do your dance child
Cause its alright already
Always surrounded by negativity
This might be where I live
But it ain't gonna change me
Gotta work on my mind
And keep my actions pure
And when I stumble, I know who has the cure
So any time your feeling down
Just lift your voice in praise
It'll pick you right up
And you can come to Him don't be afraid
Anytime , day or night He can give you what you need
And if you pray your prayer in faith
And in your heart believe that

When life's problems get you down
Can't find no peace nowhere around
Trust in the spirit you can't see
Its bout to bring you your relief
Go ahead and cry now , Its alright
Cause now you're cryin tears of joy
This life ain't hurting you no more
Cause you know its already alright
