

Circles

You Am I

Circles

My head's going 'round in circles.
My mind is going down in a whirlpool.
Dragging me down.

Time

Will tell if I take the homeward track.
But dizziness will make my feet turn back.
Walk on back to you.
Everything I do I think of you.
No matter how I try, I can't get by.
Circles leading me back to you.
Round and around.
Just one thing can kill my pain
Of losing you.
Get's me so dizzy that I walk on straight back
Back to you.

Time

Will tell if I take the homeward track.
But dizziness will make my feet turn back.
Walk on back to you.
Down, down and down like a fool love goes.
Round and round like a fool love goes.
Dragging me down.
