Jaimme's Got A Gal

Jaimme's got a girl don't think things are gonna be the same. He aint coming out and drinking tonight. think he's gonna change his name. We can't work it out. He aint punching walls anymore. I'm aint gonna wake up now find you on my floor. A game's a game, you don't want it being the same But you sure aint like you were yesterday But go on and try it And if it's true, it just aint my place to say But you sure aint like you were yesterday. Go on and try it. Phone sure sounds dead my pocket sure feel tight The things I promised not to do with you today I sure need to tonight. But it's all working out just like they said it would be. You aint gonna fall on my floor from now on it's just we three.

You Am I
