Make A Change

Youth of Today

I see it on the streets As we walk by What little value we place on human lives But it's time we get priorities Won't turn away any longer It's time we make a change