The Rain

Yusuf Islam

Everybody's thinking about the rain
Everybody's thinking about the rain
Wonder if the sun is gonna come again
Ooh, things are looking bad
Everybody in the world
in the world's looking so sad.

Everybody's thinking about the storm
Everybody's thinking about the storm
Wonder where all the good weather's gone
Oh, things are looking bad
Everybody in the world
in the world's looking so sad.

Tell me if I got to build a boat to carry us to sea Tell me what the shape of it will be
Tell me if it's gonna be a home for every kind of beast Tell me who the lucky ones would be.

Tell me if you gotta build a world what that world would be
If we're gonna build it well enough for thee
Tell me if it's gonna be a home for all humanity
Will it be believers with me? Oh

Everybody's thinking about the flood
Everybody's thinking about the flood
Wonder if the water's gonna turn to blood
Oh, things are looking bad
Everybody in the world
in the world's looking so sad.

Everybody's thinking about the rain
Everybody's thinking about the rain.
