Zeromancer

So lost to the depth Of one emerald sea White as the ghost inside You were torn away from me Love, Love cut you deep Love, Love cut you deep Once the arrow Slammed through my chest I thought you were special Not like the rest So lost to the depth Of one emerald sea Forever is a blindness Torn away from me Love, Love cut you deep It's the sound of those dry matches Being lit It's the deepest breath You will ever draw To the clicks of a million watches Love, Love cut you deep Love, Love cut you deep I found myself But lost you somewhere along All hope is gone What have I done? Always torn between right or wrong Love, Love cut you deep Love, Love cut you deep

Love, Love
