

Into Heaven

Zilch

Okay, now I'm on the way,
I'd give up everything I had to be with you someday,
Oh yeah, everything's alright,
Always looking upward as I got you in my sight.

Hey, mother, look at me,
I made my connection as I'm stepping into Heaven,
Hey, don't you pivot me,
I'll put on perfection, as I'm stepping into Heaven.

Hey you, dig the way I feel,
Is there any room to doubt all of this is real?
I know truth is on my side,
And there's no second guessing as I switch to power-glide.

Hey, mother, look at me,
I made my connection as I'm stepping into Heaven,
Hey, don't you pivot me,
I'll put on perfection, as I'm stepping into Heaven.

Don't you wanna trade all you rags for gold, leave behind the pain?
All the days you spent left out in the cold will not be in vain

Hey, mother, look at me,
I made my connection as I'm stepping into Heaven,
Hey, don't you pivot me,
I'll put on perfection, as I'm stepping into Heaven,
Hey, mother, look at me,
I made my connection as I'm stepping into Heaven,
Hey, don't you pivot me,
I'll put on perfection, as I'm stepping into Heaven.
