

In Your Nature

Zola Jesus

Eyes above me
Eyes are blown
And now just when the wall becomes a hole
I don't want to know

...The ground is shaking
Out of realm
A hunted world
Where it never shows
I don't want to go

I feel it forming
Through the skin
Swallow me whole
Let it bury me in
And there i go

It's coming down
Like a sharp
Curve in the sky
And I don't even know why

If it's in your nature you'll never win

It used to be that
The war was brought
But now the end becomes us again
We never let it in

And in the shadows
A burning light
It's getting deeper for the fight

So run off run off
Let it drip down you
Run off run off
Like it was born for you

If it's in your nature you'll never win

And then you go down that old regarded road
And I'm not the one to say I told you so
And you know
Oh you know

If it's in your nature you'll never win
