

Night Time Crawling

Zombie Ghost Train

Black rain falls from a velvet sky,
Night time crawls thru my curtains.
A shadow looms inside my head,
Silent silence screams.

And the night is crawling,
Black rain falls from a velvet sky.
My soul is poisoned
Alone I sleep in this bed of pain.

3.25 my mind is alive,
The fridge hums a cold tune,
Much like my heart
frozen in part,
Trying 2 thaw out a song.

Blackened veils over sunken eyes,
Despair pulses thru cold veins,
Ill take your pain and raise you
A sorrow,
Blackened eyes and broken hearts.
