Night Time Crawling

Zombie Ghost Train

Black rain falls from a velvet sky, Night time crawls thru my curtains. A shadow looms inside my head, Silent silence screams.

And the night is crawling, Black rain falls from a velvet sky. My soul is poisoned Alone I sleep in this bed of pain.

3.25 my mind is alive, The fridge hums a cold tune, Much like my heart frozen in part, Trying 2 thaw out a song.

Blackened veils over sunken eyes, Despair pulses thru cold veins, Ill take your pain and raise you A sorrow, Blackened eyes and broken hearts.
